HOW ARE POINTS AWARDED AT THE TRIAL EVENT RODEOS?

- Points will be awarded based on ten (10) points per number of places paid by the Trial Event rodeo. For example, a rodeo with four (4) monies paid, 1st place will receive forty (40) points (or 4 x 10) and each placing after, ten (10) less points. For a rodeo with eight (8) monies paid, 1st place will receive eighty (80) points (or 8 x 10) and each placing after, ten (10) less points. Rodeos with multiple rounds, points are allocated based on the average only.
- Utah Trial Event rodeos are worth double points. So for a rodeo with four (4) monies paid, 1st place will receive eighty (80) points (or 4 x 20) and each placing after, twenty (20) less points. For a Utah rodeo with eight (8) monies paid, 1st place will receive one hundred sixty (160) points (or 8 x 20) and each placing after, twenty (20) less points. Rodeos with multiple rounds, points are allocated based on the average only.
